What are my obligations?

- When you take out the contract

The Insured must pay the premium.

The Insured must answer all questions asked by the Insurer, in particular on the declaration form, to enable the Insurer to assess the risks covered.

- In the event of a claim

- Under the terms of the insurance cover, the Insured must declare the claim within 5 working days of becoming aware of the loss.

- For assistance services, the Insured must contact the assistance center and obtain its prior approval before taking any initiative or incurring any expense.

In all cases, the Insured is required to provide the Insurer with all supporting documents necessary for the implementation of the insurance cover and assistance services provided for in the contract.

When and how do I make payments?

The premium is payable on subscription to the contract, by any means of payment accepted by the ski lifts.

When does coverage begin and end?

Start of cover

Cover takes effect on the dates of lift passes marketed by ski-lift companies, for a maximum duration of 21 days.

Right of renunciation

In accordance with article L112-10 of the Code des Assurances, the Insured who takes out an insurance contract for non-professional purposes, if he/she can prove previous cover for one of the risks covered by this new contract, may cancel this new contract, without costs or penalties, as long as it has not been fully executed or the Insured has not called in any cover, and within a maximum period of thirty calendar days from the conclusion of the new contract.

End of cover

Cover expires on the last day of the ski pass, with a maximum duration of 21 consecutive days.

How can I cancel the contract?

Cancellation of the contract is not permitted.
